MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Happy Wednesday, everyone. I hope you all had a wonderful three-day weekend.

The Lenten Dollar war is going well! The competition is getting hot! The dollars are compiling by the hour!!!

Again... if there's anyone who can reupholster furniture, our love chairs in the front of the office are in need of more love. We will give service hours for anyone who can help reupholster the chairs. If you know of a good place, please also let the office know. Thanks!

Please remember that Martial Arts will be moved from one hour on Mondays and one hour on Fridays to two hours on Mondays, instead.

Please be sure, parents, that your daughters are wearing shorts underneath their skirts. Please be sure that proper uniform is worn, as well as all-black shoes. Boys must keep their hair short and no gel for boys and girls, please.

Please remember that if you're having financial issues, applications for the Catholic Education Foundation scholarship are still in the office. We are extending the date to pick them up in the office to this Friday, Feb. 19th.

Again, thank you for all that you do!

God's Blessings,
Ms. Alberto
